One Rakesh Talwar has sent a letter to this court praying for registration of case against the officials of Municipal Corporation, Ludhiana.

In the letter, it has been alleged that in July, 1998, when the petitioner was driving scooter No. PB-10P-4995 and when he reached near Dhobi Ghat Chowk, Ludhiana, in rainy season, his scooter struck in the open manhole built in the middle of the road and he fell down and received multiple injuries.

The petitioner wants registration of criminal case against the officials of the Municipal Corporation for their negligence, now after seven years. At this belated stage, I do not find any ground to order for registration of criminal case.

Dismissed.

However, it is open for the petitioner to avail his civil remedy for compensation.
